THE DREAM-BOAT.

Words and Music by FLETA J. BROWN.

Moderato.

Ba - - by's life's a pleas - ure boat Near the Isle of Dream - land float —

Glide thro' chang - ing seas of life, Far from the world of strife.

In to trou - bled depths of woe      Crafts are tossed to and fro.

In - to un - seen sor - row caves      Boats are dri - ven by the waves.

Storm clouds change to snow - y white,      Shad - ows go and all is bright.

Sails are of love,      an - gels a - bove      Guide the boat for you.

The second time ppp

Dream, dream, drift - ing down life's stream;

Dream of a land of beau-ty and flow'rs, Where joy bells gai - ly ring out the hours.

Croon, croon. The man in the sil - ver moon

Beckons each star to watch from a far — Slum-ber, my ba - by soon. soon.
